January 2018 Programs

Tuesday, January 9; 1:00 – 3:00 p.m. – “The Gonzales and Paiz Families from Northern New Mexico to Early Colorado” presented by Denise Lovato Duran, Vice President of the Colorado Hispanic Genealogy Society

Denise Lovato Duran is descended from settlers who were brought to present-day New Mexico by the conquistadors as early as 1598. Her family later settled in Las Animas County in the Colorado Territory in the 1860s. She has been exploring this heritage since 1984 and will share insights into her family’s story and the early history and settlement of the Southwest.

Tuesday, January 16; 9:30 – 11:30 a.m. EARLY BIRD CLASS
“Beginning Genealogy” with Barbara Elliott, CGHS member

Explore the possibilities of researching family history with an experienced genealogist. Barbara has over 30 years of experience in genealogy. She will talk about where to start, census records, digital databases and online searches. Barbara has worked at the LDS Family History Center and does research using the extensive films at the LDS Library. She knows the ins and outs of the Family Search databases and says that she can find just about anything. There is no fee to attend and no advance registration is required. All are welcome!

Tuesday, January 16; 1:00 – 3:00 p.m. “Marriage, Separation and Divorce” presented by Carol Cooke Darrow, Certified Genealogist

Marriage, separation and divorce have shaped the lives of many of our ancestors and their descendants. What may have started out as a dream of love and happiness may have turned into a nightmare of arguments, fights, separation, divorce or desertion. Carol will introduce us to the types of records available and how to search for them.
