May 2018 Program

Last program before our summer break!

Tuesday, May 8; 1:00 - 3:00 p.m. - "Fold3" presented by Barbara Elliott, CGHS Member

This will be an introduction to Fold3, a valuable online resource for researching your military ancestors. Fold3 has been adding new records since it started in 2007 (as Footnote.com) and it now has about 290 million records in its collection. Documents range in time from the Revolutionary War up to the most recent U.S. conflicts in the Persian Gulf, Iraq and Afghanistan. The database also has international records from the British Isles, Canada, Australia and New Zealand. Non-military records include newspapers, vital records, city directories and a Holocaust Collection. If you have never used Fold3, or just want an update of what it has to offer, come and spend part of your afternoon with us!
