October Programs

Tuesday, October 9; 1:00 – 3:00 p.m. “The Great Denver Mint Robbery of 1922”

Presented by CGHS members Steve and Carol Johnson and local gun collector Bob Roth

On December 18, 1922, on Colfax Avenue outside the Denver Mint, a four-man gang held up a Federal Reserve truck containing $200,000 in cash. One guard was killed in the exchange of gunfire and one of the bandits was injured before the gang fled in their black Buick. Come hear the story of this daring robbery and the decades-long manhunt and investigation that followed.

Tuesday, October 16; 9:30 – 11:30 a.m. **EARLY BIRD CLASS****

“Your Cousin . . . the Banana?” Presented by J. Voegtly, CGHS member

This two-hour multimedia presentation is an introduction to the world of DNA and genetic testing. The application of test results to genealogical research will be covered along with a look at the current commercial DNA testing options available to the public and how to choose the appropriate kit for your test.

Tuesday, October 16; 1:00 – 3:00 p.m. “Iron, Dynamite and Intrigue: The Story of the Denver Northwestern and Pacific Railway” Presented by Stan Moore, local author and historian

Businessman, banker and railroad builder David Moffat played a key role in early Colorado’s growth. His dream was to build a railroad west from Denver through the Rockies. He used his personal wealth to fund the project and died before it was completed. But today the Moffat Road and Moffat Tunnel are still vital parts of our state’s rail network.
