September 2018 Programs

Tuesday, September 11; 1:00 - 3:00 p.m. - "What a Disaster! Researching and Writing about Weather Events in Your Family History" presented by Susie Wickman, disaster management professional and family historian.

Were any of your ancestors impacted by extreme weather events? Data on natural disasters such as hurricanes, floods and tornadoes can enhance and perhaps help to explain our families' stories. Ms. Wickman will give insights on various weather conditions and how to identify and research the historic records that are available.
