April 2019 Programs

Tuesday, April 9 1:00 p.m. “A Western Woman’s Wardrobe”
Presented by Angela Weeden, who has a background in anthropology, ethnohistory, and history museum education

The idea of Victorian women’s clothing might conjure thoughts of corsets and crinolines, but what did the average Colorado woman wear in the 1860s; actually wear on a daily basis? This dressing sequence will explore all of the layers of a pioneer woman’s wardrobe from the inside out to find out what she wore, how she wore it, and why she wore it.

Tuesday, April 16 9:30 – 11:30 a.m. Early Bird
“An Introduction to Genealogical Publishing: Saving Your Genealogical Research One Book at a Time” Presented by Dina Carson, Publisher, Author, Genealogist

Genealogists and genealogical societies have more options for publishing their family histories now than at any other time. But which method is best? Print may be preferred by the older generation, and certainly has durability, but perhaps an electronic book would engage the younger generation better. Publishing online is a third option but not for every publishing project. There are local records projects that could help preserve or make more accessible information for genealogists who may not be able to travel to the place of the original records. Publishing is one option for passing this generation’s research on to the next generation.

Tuesday, April 16 1:00 p.m. “Irish Famine Hardships & Emigrant Journeys To Other Lands” Presented by Marylee Hagen

The Irish Potato Famine, also known as The Great Hunger, took place from around 1845 to 1851. It was so devastating that about half of Ireland’s population either died of starvation or emigrated to other countries like Britain, Canada, America, and Australia. These journeys took several weeks and many passengers did not survive, so the ships were often called “coffin ships”! This will be a Power Point program of slides plus several display boards and books to view.

The Columbine Genealogical & Historical Society meets at the Lutheran Church of the Holy Spirit, 6400 S. University Blvd., Centennial, CO. Program meetings are held on the second and third Tuesdays of the month at 1:00 p.m. and “Early Bird” classes are scheduled on the third Tuesday of the month at 9:30 a.m. No programs are presented in June, July, and August. A holiday social gathering is held on the second Tuesday of December. For meeting details, email Bob Jenkins, CGHS President:
