“What’s Your Story” presented by John Putnam

Genealogy is more than pedigrees and family trees. More importantly, stories are an important part of preserving your genealogy because it provides your descendants with a narrative of WHO you were and how you related to the expanded family. This presentation advocates to participants to write and save these rich genealogical nuggets for the future.

Tuesday, October 15 9:30 – 11:30 a.m. Early Bird

“Keeping Up with the Genealogical Buzz” presented by Kathy Tarullo,

Director Arvada Family History Center

You can find genealogical information all over the Internet. It can oftentimes be overwhelming with the torrent of information out there, unless you know where to look. You can keep up on the latest Genealogy Buzz with just a few specific internet sites you already use and information digestion strategies. With this class, you can quickly learn what information is available to you through tweets, blogs, newsletters, RSS feeds, webinars, and podcasts. You can discover the genealogical side of YouTube, Pinterest, Facebook, and Instagram, and the power they have in developing your genealogical research skills.

Tuesday, October 15 1:00 p.m. – 3:00

“Seesaw: How November ’42 Shaped the Future” presented by Stan Moore

By late 1942 the world had been fighting for years, with no end in sight. The five weeks from late October to early December saw campaigns, battles, and developments, which decisively turned the war to the Allies’ favor.

The author, Stan Moore takes a fresh look at the personalities and events that led up to this critical period. He then examines five campaigns around the world through the month of November. Moore also discusses how the campaigns and events are inter-related in new and interesting ways. His sources are interviews, oral histories, and previously unavailable diaries, photos, and letters. A wide selection of books, sites, and journals were tapped as well.

The Columbine Genealogical & Historical Society meets at the Lutheran Church of the Holy Spirit, 6400 S. University Blvd., Centennial, CO. Program meetings are held on the second and third Tuesdays of the month at 1:00 p.m. and “Early Bird” classes are scheduled on the third Tuesday of the month at 9:30 a.m. No programs are presented in June, July, and August. A holiday social gathering is held on the second Tuesday of December. For meeting details or additional information, email CGHS at ColumbineGenealogy@gmail.com
